

What makes us different?

Student Centred Approach

Students form the heart of our school, which is why all our decisions are made with them in mind

Student Centred Approach

Beyond the classroom, students receive continuous support through our 24/7 customer care number

Family Environment

We are proud to have a family environment where students feel safe, respected and valued

Open-Door Policy

Staff and teachers are always available to listen to students' concerns and suggestions, creating trust

Prioritised Student Development

Beyond language skills, we emphasise students' overall development to build confidence in using the language

Continuous Feedback

We regularly collect feedback from students and act on it to improve their experience and overall satisfaction

About Us

- ✦ We are an English Language School based in Malta that forms part of the International House World Organisation, which boasts over 140 language schools in 45 countries.
- ✦ We are accredited by the ELT Council, EAQUALS, Bildungsurlaub and Erasmus
- ✦ International House Malta has been welcoming students since 2001, which means we have over 20 years of experience teaching English to International students.
- ✦ Our school is located in St Julian's and is open all year round
- ✦ All our teachers are CELTA qualified and undergo continuous CPD training to constantly improve their teaching methods.
